Key moments

Each diagram shows the position before the move. The coloured arrow is the move played, the green arrow the engine's best move.

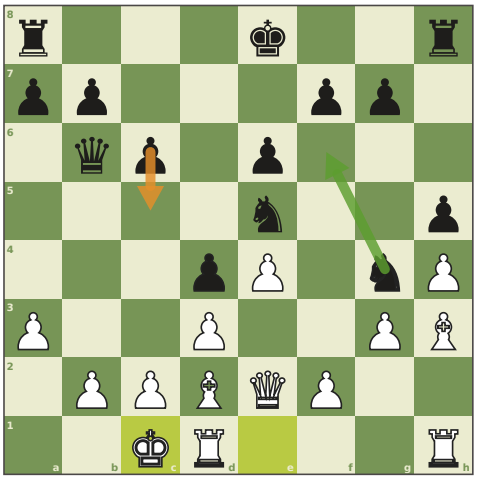

15. O-O-O ?! Inaccuracy +1.84 → +1.01

- Black's best reply is Nf6.
- No material is lost, but now White is slightly better (+1.01) instead of +1.84.
- Better was f4, which attacks their knight on e5 (+1.84).

Coach tip: Compare your candidate moves by their best reply, not just by what they do for you.

Best line: f4 Qxb2 O-O Nd7 Bxg4 hxg4 Bb4 a5

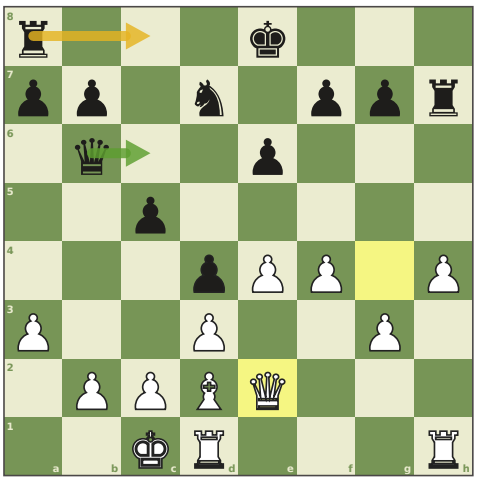

15... c5 ? Mistake +1.01 → +2.48

- White answers f4, which attacks your knight on e5.
- After f4 Nd7 Bxg4 hxg4 Qxg4 O-O-O Qxg7, White wins two pawns' worth of material.
- Better was Nf6 (+1.01).
- White is clearly better (+2.48).

Coach tip: Blunder check: before you move, ask which of your pieces will be attacked or undefended afterwards.

Best line: Nf6 f4 Ned7 Kb1 O-O-O Ka1 Kb8 g4

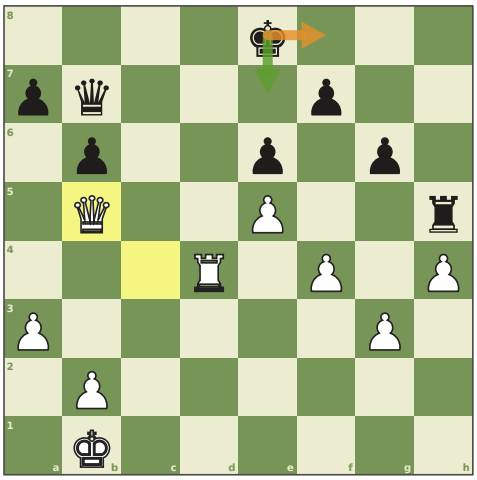

19... Rc8 ?! Inaccuracy +1.89 → +2.66

- White's best reply is g4.
- No material is lost, but now White is clearly better (+2.66) instead of +1.89.
- Better was Qc6 (+1.89).

Coach tip: Compare your candidate moves by their best reply, not just by what they do for you.

Best line: Qc6 h5 b5 Kb1 a5 g4 b4 Ka2

35... Kf8 ? Mistake +4.00 → +8.06

- White answers Rd8+, which gives check.
- No material is lost, but now White is winning (+8.06) instead of +4.00.
- Better was Ke7 (+4.00).

Coach tip: Compare your candidate moves by their best reply, not just by what they do for you.

Best line: Ke7 Qb4+ Ke8 Qd6 Qc8 Ka2 Rh7 Kb3
